

presents

“What can I do with a Philosophy degree?”

April 29th 2016 at 3PM in HU 354

Food and Refreshments served

Panellists Include:

Elizabeth Gray

UAlbany philosophy honors graduate and founder of the Wishi Project, a primary school catering to the Wishi community in Ecuador. Assistant Dean of the College of Emergency Preparedness and Homeland Security.

Cameron Waldman

UAlbany philosophy honors student, first year med student at Albany Medical College, research assistant in bioethics at the Hastings Center and LGBT activist.

Dr. James Walker

UAlbany philosophy PhD and co-founder of Asteroidea Health Alliance, a non-profit whose mission is to equip community-based health initiatives in east and central Africa.

Ray Brescia

Associate Professor of Law and Director of the Government Law Center at Albany Law School. BA in Political Philosophy from Fordham University

Albany Law School

ALBANY LAW SCHOOL

Admissions representative will be there to answer your questions!

